

Life Partner Classes

Led by Dr. Harold Guess

Dr. Guess leads the Life Partner classes at University Christian Church. Though the classes are not required to be married by him or to have a wedding at University Christian Church, they are highly recommended, and as of September 1, 2008 qualify couples for a discount on the purchase of their marriage license. The classes are for any couple (married or unmarried) wanting to evaluate their relationship, anticipating marriage, or planning to be married.

The Life Partner class looks at the Prepare-Enrich inventory, which rates your relationship in twelve different areas, rating each area as a strength or a growth area (www.prepare-enrich.com). Then the class considers "financial management", "family of origin", and "intimacy and sexuality". We also use the Kiersey Temperament Sorter to help couples get in touch with their personality differences. Communication and conflict resolution skill building complete the day's work. Using materials from Couple Communication, Inc., we focus on skill building and at the same time "resolve" some of our smaller issues.

The class begins at 8:30 a.m. and ends at 5:00 p.m. Couples enrolling and participating will earn a certificate to waive the State of Texas portion of the Marriage License fee. The cost for each couple will be the $50 scoring fee plus $200 for the all day class.

Future 2010 class dates are:

April 10, 2010
July 10, 2010
October 16, 2010

Dr. Guess is experimenting with having a class meet on 2 consecutive Sunday afternoons, instead of on one whole day. Each of these two "sections" would run from 1 – 6:00 p.m.

Future 2010 dates for the 2-section format are:

February 21, 2010
February 28, 2010

To sign up for a class, send your check to Harold Guess along with the class registration form on the next page. He will get back to you for further information.
